Can we strong enough to live without any roles. How would we then describe

"Futurological Congress"

Can we live without
roles?

If not, how do we assign the roles?

So much of our
activity is unconscious,
e.g. walking,
assigning certain activity
to an unconscious
level of activity.

to be loved vs. to love

do these any value
to roles?

What does it mean to be an individual?
to identify with
abstractions.
How we identify, beg
looking outside?

If there's any chance, you've got to go for it. It
craps out to eventry;
in order to avoid
any disappointment.
We must learn
to live with and
accept disappointment
if we want to achieve
anything.
